Introduction of the Project

Beijing Delphi Wanyuan Engine Management Systems Co., Ltd. was invested and established by Delphi China Co., Ltd. and Beijing Auto Parts Group Co., Ltd. In view of the prosperity of domestic auto market, the existing production capacity can't meet the developing demands. From 2010 on, the company has started the construction process, we got great support from the Board of Directors.

The project will be finished and handed over in 2012.

The project is located at plot X651/A2, Hexi Area, Beijing. It is situated between the north-east to Fengtai Road and the west is Hongbo Street. The gross floor area takes about 30874m². The project includes R&D building, Laboratory Room, Chemicals storage room, office, dormitory, canteen, etc. The investment (including equipment) takes about RMB 35 million. The project will be used with domestic and international market. In the next 5 years, the company will have the ability to serve the space and fast growing market with current capacity. Meanwhile, the company will establish a fully comprehensive R&D center and technical centers in Shanghai.
